

Citation Jade Morris

This person has been nominated for her work with Hatherleigh band and Okehampton Big Band and for work she has done within the Community.

She is 15 years old and attends Okehampton College where she is currently studying for her GCSES and then hopes to do her A levels and go onto University to train as a Primary School teacher.

She joined Hatherleigh band in 2005 where she plays cornet, she is a very valuable member of the team which won the regional finals this year to qualify for the National finals in Cheltenham Tomorrow, where she will represent Hatherleigh and the South West of England.

She also plays for Okehampton College big band playing Saxophone and has been on a tour to New York and plays at many fund raising events.

This young lady was involved in Hatherleigh Brownies and is currently a young leader with the Guides.

As if she is not busy enough already she has set up a net ball team to join the ladies league and spent many hours obtaining a grant for the team for kit and to cover sports fees. All her team are under sixteen and can now play without financial worries

She also helps in the parish Church Sunday club which involves working with children from 3-11 years, she also belongs to "Ollie" and helps out at holiday clubs run by Kevin Downs

Her family and friends are very proud that Jade has been nominated for this Award.

Would Jade Morris please come up and collect the Award for outstanding Under 18 years of age female.
