MATTERS ARISING FROM MINUTES

8. War Horse sign (min.390 refers) WDBC reported "small scale works necessary to the functioning of the role of local authorities are allowed on land belonging to or maintained by them". WDBC advised that if there were any highway issues then DCC should be consulted. Town Council agreed that there were no highway issues involved.

9. Millennium plaque/mosaic South Street (min.391 refers) following a request to WDBC for urgent work to be carried out to these trees for health and safety reasons, WDBC gave permission for pruning, with the request that "work is kept to the minimum required". Cllr.Gilbert to contact Top Cut to carry out the necessary work to enable the millennium plaque to be repaired.

10. White line by chapel (min.393 refers) Cllr.Gilbert would ascertain from Mr.Tidball if a fee had been payable to DCC for the white line outside his property.

11. Buddle Lane/weeds around town (min.399 refers) Mr.L.Cole was not prepared to health and safety risks, to carry out weed killing throughout the town. Following a discussion it was resolved that:-

a) Clerk ascertain cost of weed killing work from DCC

b) Obtain details from South Tawton/Sticklepath councils about TAP fund for such works

c) A "weed pick" was suggested. Cllr.Tyson to put this item in Parish Pump.

12. New traffic bollards (min.411 refers) County Cllr.McInnes would look into why the agreed additional bollard outside the Co-op has not been installed.
