PLAN IT

116. Cllr.Tyson reported that the Plan-It committee had handed the plan over to the Town council to ratify. Cllrs.Bush and Tyson went through the document and all those present put forward various suggestions/amendments to the 4th draft. This exercise was to ensure that the wording of the document reflected the views of the residents of Hatherleigh as it was “their plan”. Cllrs.Bush and Tyson would implement these amendments and present the final draft to the Council at the September meeting to ratify and then the document can go out for consultation.
