PARISH PUMP

Issue 474

Junior Pump Blog

My name is Faith, I am 10 years old and i have been doing agility for nearly 6 years now. It is a sport for me and I really enjoy it. If you are unsure what agility is, you may have seen Crufts on the TV and no that it is a worldwide, loved sport for dogs and their humans. I have a dog called Cassie and she also enjoys doing agility. Cassie is a cavalier king Charles spaniel and is 2 years old. It is quite hard work but I have managed it. It has worked out quite well for me because I have received a 1st, 2nd and 3rd place, but my Nanny won the 2nd place as it so happens I wasn't around to run her that particular day. Some times she has off days just like you and me, and other times she just makes me so proud. When she got her 1st place I was so pleased with her. I am so grateful for having a dog like her who works her socks off. She is my best friend and is so loyal, she always does try her best. I first started training with my Nanny's dog called Renn when I was 4. She is a collie and been competing for quite a few years so she has taught me a lot through her experience and was very patient with me. However the time came to own my own dog, that's my Cassie girl. Some girls like ballet, trampolining or gymnastics. I like the outdoors even if it's raining! I love my dog and she loves me. I go over to my Nanny's everyday after school to train or go for a nice long, well deserved walk. I compete in shows all over the country, but my dream is to compete in Crufts one day so you may see me on the TV in a few years!!

The Pump Team

Hello Everyone,

I hope everyone is keeping safe and well. The temperature has dropped, that can only mean one thing...this month is CARNIVAL! Remember to enjoy the festivities whilst keeping each other safe. Halloween will no doubt see children hitting the streets for Tick or Treating. Please be mindful of residents and only go where decorations and pumpkins have been placed outside.

This month we have a new addition to the pump, have a look at 'The Night Sky' on page 17.

Another big thank you to Christina Knights who has yet again provided us with an amazing seasonal front cover. I hope everyone will appreciate the coloured cover. I think you will agree that seeing the cover in colour is so much better.

Remember that Hatherleigh Market is on every Tuesday.

Please continue to support all our local shops and businesses.

Keep safe and Best wishes to you all!

Hello again,

It feels very odd to be writing about November again already; time seems to have slipped into the surreal!

I would like to take this opportunity to extend my thanks to all who were involved with, and attended our 'all souls' service on October 31st; we wanted this to be a fitting and memorable and tribute to those we have lost as a community in these difficult times.

On the subject of remembering, it seems we will be able to go ahead with the Remembrance Parade and service as usual this year on the 14th; meeting up at Claremont Place and following the procession down to the church. This, of course, follows hot on the heels from the Carnival. As I write, I'm attempting to put a float together from the churches to go in this year too. We're not there yet so I'm making no promises from here. Either way, it will be good to have the carnival back on to bring us all together again. Congratulations to the Carnival committee for overcoming the many obstacles to make this happen this year.

While we're in this season of remembrance, it strikes me that it would be no bad thing to remember the living too! It's all too easy to assume that those we know, love, and maybe don't love so well, will always be with us. Our experience often painfully proves this to be false; certainly in my work I can never forget that life is fragile and should be cherished. St. Paul wrote 'do not let the sun go down while you are still angry', in other words; keep your relationships good, life is too short for holding grudges. Now, I know it looks like Lynn and I have the perfect marriage, but believe me, we have days!... But, having had a few close brushes with death, I am ever aware that we can never take tomorrow for granted. So, we don't end the day in conflict, neither can I ever leave the house on a cross word. Our community is only as strong as the individual relationships it is made up of; we all need each other, so I commend the teaching of St. Paul to us all. Let's have no regrets and be good to one another, while we still have the opportunity.

Love and best wishes to you all, Rev. Leigh.

Hatherleigh Community Primary School

Seven weeks have passed and we have reached our first half term break of the school year. COVID continues to make it very challenging in school but it has been really good to be a whole school again and return to some normality.

It has been a very busy first half term where we have been able to welcome back Revd Leigh and also Revd Jackson for the first time, who joined us for our Harvest celebrations. Other visitors to school have included the Devon Wildlife trust to speak to YR, Y1 & Y2 about Bats and Bugs and the Kyan String Quartet who played for Y4 & Y6.

As mentioned last month Y5 went away for their Outdoor and Adventurous trip and just before the half term break Y4 travelled to Dorset for their Greek themed residential trip at Hooke Court.

Swimming has begun again with Y3 going to the Okehampton pool this half term and Y4 next. Y2 had a Victorian day where children and staff dressed in Victorian costumes and enjoyed a Victorian school day.

The PTFA have been able to meet again and many fund raising activities and events have been planned for the year including the very successful Autumn ball and a half term Halloween disco.

We have been really pleased to be able to offer Extra curricular clubs again with activities ranging from Spanish to Frisbee club.

As said, COVID continues to challenge the school and I would like to thank the whole school community for their continuing support and understanding during these difficult times.

The whole school is now looking forward to the next half term and the run up to Christmas.

The Night Sky November 2021

November is a good month for observing the night sky as the weather is more likely to be cold and clear. New Moon falls on the 4th of November. It is around the time of the New Moon that we are able to see fainter celestial objects. This includes galaxies and nebulae (clouds of gas and dust where stars are born). Full Moon falls on the 19th of November. At this time fainter celestial objects are much more difficult to observe as the light of the Moon washes them out.

The planet Uranus reaches opposition on November 5th. When a planet reaches opposition it is visible all night long and is also at its closest approach to Earth. This distant world is visible in a pair of binoculars and looks like a bluish dot. You'll be able to find it about 21 degrees above the eastern horizon. It will be in the constellation of Aries, the Ram. To give you an idea of how far away the planet is from Earth it will be about 160 light minutes away. That means that travelling at the speed of light it would still take you over 2 and a half hours to reach the planet!

Finally the Leonid meteor shower takes place on the night of the 17th-18th of November. You can see about 15-20 meteors per hour. Meteors are little grains of dust that burn up high in our atmosphere. They are termed meteorites if they hit the ground. The best time to observe this shower is between 11pm and 4am as it is during these hours that the night side of the Earth will turn into the oncoming meteor stream. There will be a bright moon which will wash out some of the fainter meteors but if your lucky you may catch the occasional fireball racing across the sky.

Hatherleigh Bells Restoration Project

Regular ringing resumed in Hatherleigh a few weeks ago and we're grateful for the many appreciative messages received after the return of the bells. Thanks to all of you who contacted us.

Just before lockdown in March 2019 we wrote here about our fundraising plans. Our bell-frame is very much past its sell-by date, our eight bells need rehanging and other improvements in the tower are necessary. This work has become more urgent as we've been unable to progress during the pandemic. Leaflets will shortly be distributed to Hatherleigh residents and businesses explaining the problems we face and asking for help in raising the money to keep our bells ringing far into the future. We are also approaching several funding bodies for grants.

We continue to ring for church services and on our regular Thursday practice night. On Remembrance Sunday (November 14th) the bells will ring half-muffled, a tradition on solemn occasions. One half of each bell clapper is covered with a muffle so that an echoing sound is heard on alternate strikes of the bell.

For more information about Hatherleigh Bellringers' Bells Restoration Project please check our latest news on Facebook: Hatherleigh Ringers. You can also contact Rebecca Harrison, our Secretary, via email: rebecca@harrisonsonthenet or our Tower Captain, Mark Wonnacott, on 07870 307441.

Hatherleigh Silver Band News

We have been very busy recently taking part in the National Brass Band Final's Competition held in Cheltenham. We competed in the 2nd Section with bands from all over Great Britain and although we didn't win we enjoyed representing Devon.

Since then we have resumed rehearsing in Hatherleigh on Monday and Thursday evenings commencing at 7.30. For those who don't know, the bandroom is behind the medical centre. If you are a brass player who is thinking of returning to banding, we would be delighted to welcome you. If you are a little rusty you would be welcome to practice with our training band which is now to be held on Thursday evenings at 6p.m. in the band room. This is open to people of all ages. Please let me know if you intend to come.

Leading up to Christmas we will be out and about playing carols and attending various events.

There are 2 important dates to put in your diaries to get you in the Christmas spirit. We will be hosting a special Christmas concert in Northlew Victory Hall on Thursday 16th December and in Hatherleigh Community Centre on Friday 17th December at 7.30. Please come along and support us. There will be tea/coffee/mince pies and a bar!

Hope to see you soon.

Free Support to Help Farmers Navigate the Agricultural Transition

Business Information Point are providing free, tailored one to one advice, webinars, and business skills development workshops to help farmers and land managers navigate the changes brought about by the Agricultural Transition. The Future Farming Resilience Fund has been funded by Defra and is available from September 2021 to February 2022 across Devon and Somerset to any farmer or land manager currently in receipt of BPS payments.

Initially we will be running several free, local workshops to discuss the changes. In addition, we have a local network of experienced advisors who can work with you to assess your current position, how the changes are going to affect you and your farm and discuss the options available to you. Carried out in-person or remotely, they will perform a thorough, independent review of all your activities and help to develop an agreed action plan for the future.

For further details and to register for the support please visit our website - <https://businessinfopoint.co.uk/ffr/> or call 01837 659 059.

Remembrance Sunday

This years Remembrance parade and service is as normal. We will meet at Claremont for 10.30 to march down to the church, for the laying of wreaths and the Remembrance service. Followed by marching down through town to the community centre for some light refreshments.

Poppy appeal 2021

This year celebrates the 100th anniversary of the poppy appeal, which is still as strong as ever with all the help we receive from our poppy sellers and everyone that buys a poppy.

This year we will be fully stocked in all shops and a market stall on Tuesday 2nd of November. Poppy's will also be on sale at our coffee morning on the 9th November. There will be no door to door collections this year.

Please buy your poppy's locally.

I have wreaths available if you would like one please give me a call my number is on the back of the pump.

Coffee morning

Coffee morning for the British Legion Poppy Appeal is on the 9th of November, it is our yearly coffee morning with proceeds going to the poppy appeal. Please come along for a coffee and a chat.

Autumn — Hedgerows

Help us to build up a picture of Devon's wildlife by telling Devon Biodiversity Records Centre (www.dbr.org.uk) what you have seen and where.

With an abundance of fruit and nuts in autumn, hedgerows are where many species gather to feed and fatten up before winter. Particularly hibernating species, like hedgehogs and dormice.

Places to look for wildlife— Take a close look and see what you can find.

Blackberries are one of the most abundant fruits. These provide food for a huge number of species, including mammals, birds and insects.

Amy Lewis

Ivy flowers through autumn provide a much-needed nectar source. Mature plants produce greenish-yellow flowers. You can spot late-flying butterflies, such as the comma on this ivy.

Amy Lewis

Hazelnuts are an important source of energy for lots of small mammals. Take a close look at them and see if you can find any that have been nibbled.

Dormouse

- Smooth inner rim of hole
- Tooth marks on surface of nut at angles in a spiral around the hole

Wood mouse

- Parallel tooth marks on inner rim of hole
- Rough tooth marks around outer rim of hole

Bank vole

- Parallel tooth marks on inner rim of hole
- No tooth marks on surface of nut

Squirrel

- Smooth - no tooth marks
- Cracks nutshells open cleanly

Woodpecker and nuthatch

- Wedge nuts into crevices
- Cracks nutshells open by hammering with beak

Insects

Angle shades: This distinctive moth is often visible in the daytime. It uses camouflage to hide, resting with its wings folded along its body, resembling a dry leaf. Adults can be seen in early autumn. This species overwinters in the ground as a caterpillar.

Galls: Fallen leaves give a great opportunity to look closely at some of the galls that can be found, like these spangle galls, caused by a gall wasp. Galls most commonly form due to insects, forcing the tree to produce a growth for the benefit of the insect. Gall wasps are a common culprit, and there are many different species. They cause other commonly spotted galls like oak marble galls and robin's pin-cushions.

Birds

Redwings gather in large groups in autumn. They migrate to Britain in October and spend the winter here, initially feeding on abundant berries. Redwings spend most of the time in hedgerows, only visiting gardens in extreme weather. A small member of the Thrush family, they have a striking red colour to their underwing and a distinctive cream-coloured stripe above the eye.

Fieldfares are another, larger, member of the Thrush family. They also overwinter in Britain, often in large flocks. Often seen along hawthorn hedges, feeding on the berries. Again, they rarely visit gardens unless snowy weather covers their preferred habitat.

Hatherleigh Methodist Church

Hello everyone, we hope you are keeping well.

Where is this year going? I cannot believe that we are now heading towards Autumnal walks, darker nights, firework parties and Hatherleigh Carnival! It's all very exciting and we do hope we will be able to safely enjoy the Autumn this year, but we must try to remember to respect other people as they may not share our same enthusiasm.

Please do keep a watchful eye on the notice board outside the chapel for up-to-date notices.

Here are the proposed events for November:

November 7th at 11.00 a.m. Our minister, Rev Chris Jackson will be with us.

Carnival evening (13th) - Sarah and the youth group will be handing out fun goodies!

14th November - United service at the Church of England (Remembrance)

21st November at 11.00 a.m. with Rev Dale Sutcliffe

28th November, First Sunday in Advent at 4.00 p.m. we are holding a Christingle (Please book a table if possible)

Then in December we are planning to hold:

December 5th at 11.00 a.m. Toy Service with Rev. Chris Jackson

December 19th at 11.00 a.m. Chapel Anniversary service with Alison Morgan

December 19th at 6.30 p.m. Carol Service with Rev Chris Jackson

So, keep safe and we hope you and your family and friends enjoy God's beautiful Autumn

The Sunday Club families gave Sandra and Janet Trenaman thank you gifts at the all age Harvest Festival, to say thank you for all their years of dedication to the children and the Sunday Club.

Hatherleigh Carnival

As everyone is no doubt all too aware, COVID-19 has not gone away, a fact that every single member of the Hatherleigh Carnival Committee has held in their minds through the many months of planning for this year's Carnival. Hatherleigh Carnival Committee would like to reassure the community of Hatherleigh and our visiting guests that while planning this year's carnival we have taken steps to reduce the risk of opportunities for close face-to-face interactions between attendees and avoid members of the public from gathering indoors, which we hope will mitigate some of the potential risk involved and put people's minds at ease.

We have made the difficult decision to suspend all judging for floats walking guys, and all other entries in both the afternoon and evening processions. This removes the need to gather inside the Community Centre after the afternoon procession, and avoids unnecessary interaction between judges, entrants and marshals, and the handling of trophies as well. However, we are still keen to know who you think are the standout entrants in this year's carnival so we will be asking the audience to cast their vote via our Facebook page (more details below). Please note grants are still available for all entries.

We will still be offering refreshments for holders of the 2020 or 2021 Vice Presidents badges, however this will be held either outside of the Old Schools or inside the Square, so people do not need to gather inside the Old Schools. This year's £1 and Vice Presidents badges are currently on sale from committee members and local businesses, which enter you into a draw to win £50 cash or £50 cash plus a meal for two at The George Hotel in Hatherleigh respectively.

Attending this event is personal choice, and we would encourage anyone who is uneasy about being in a crowd to consider spreading out all the procession route and watching the Carnival from a less crowded street, as well as bringing and using your own mask and hand sanitiser where required. Please do not attend if you have any COVID-19 symptoms. Hatherleigh Carnival Committee will continue to monitor the situation closely and follow any government guidance.

We will once again be holding our trio of non-tableaux decoration competitions over the Carnival weekend, the 'Decorated Shop Windows', 'Decorated House' and 'Decorated Guy' competitions. Please keep in mind you don't need to live on the Carnival route to enter, nor do you need to decorate your entire house- even just a window is more than enough! To enter, please get in touch with Carnival Secretary Laura Barrs on 07814 838844 or reds22@googlemail.com.

Our annual photo competition will once again be taking place from Carnival weekend onwards- please email all photography entries to info@hatherleighcarnival.co.uk by the end of November for judging.

We are planning to run the Carnival weekend in the usual format, the full timetable will be included in the enclosed Carnival programme excellently put together by Linda King and Donna Lewis, but do expect the usual: Friday night sees the unlit barrels being dragged up through the town, followed by live music in the Square- first up is funk and soul band Electric Spank followed by The Fireblockers and DJ Steve; Saturday will see the 5am tar barrels, and then be host to the Town Crier Display, followed by the children's procession (this is unjudged, but there will be a display held in the community centre car park); the main evening procession will of course be followed by the second tar barrel run, followed by live music from the massed bands, Eat The Rich, James Monkman, and headliners Lionstar. Make sure to keep your eyes peeled for street entertainers on Saturday night!

Refreshments will be provided in the Square this year- following success of previous years, the Tar Barrel Committee will be running a burger stand on both nights, and the Carnival will also be running a bar. We will be extremely dependent on volunteer support for this, so if you would be happy to donate some time to the bar please contact Rupert on 07876746774.

Although Kingswood Homes have generously permitted us to use the new estates for the floats to gather in on the Saturday evening, a lack of destinations to burn the tar barrels has meant we have had to alter the route for the burning tar barrels for this year. The new route will begin at the top of Market Street, run down to the school via Market and Bridge Streets, up South Street, down High Street, and back down Bridge Street past Island Park to the new burn site. We will publish a new map showing the amended route on social media soon.

We are once again putting out a plea for stewards for the weekend, especially with the new route for the barrels- if you are interested in volunteering as an all-too-crucial steward over Carnival weekend, please contact Carnival Secretary Cindy Squire on 01837 810969.

In place of the usual judging of floats and walking guys in the evening procession, we are looking to hold a digital vote for the Jacky Entwistle Cup, which will be awarded to the entry that the public believe has the most 'visual impact'. The link will be posted on our Facebook page during the procession, and visitors will be asked to vote for which entry they feel is the worthiest winner. Look out for their numbers!

We hope everyone has a safe and enjoyable Carnival weekend. Oggy oggy oggy!

HATHERLEIGH TOWN COUNCIL

Notes from the Council Meetings held on Tuesday 12th October 2021.

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday 9th October 2021 at 7pm in the Community Centre.

For more information see our website
www.hatherleightowncouncil.org/

Your 8 Councillors are Clare Tyson (Chair/Mayor), Rachel Laycock (Deputy), Deb Laing-Trengove, Kay Walters, Donna Lewis, Callum Entwistle, Ellie Holland, Paul Bolland.

Two vacancies.

Following the resignations of Claire Gladstone and Peter Back due to other commitments we now have two vacancies. Contact the clerk or speak to a councillor for more information.

Hatherleigh Lockdown book: Cllr. Donna Lewis presented her draft copy at which she received lots of praise for the well presented book. Information will be elsewhere in the Pump on how to order/buy a copy.

Playpark Survey: Thank you to all who took part, we had a good response to the survey. The results of this was presented at meeting, the information will be digested for a discussion on the way forward next meeting.

Town Entrance Signs: following a business group meeting discussion was had over the design and location of the 3 replacement town entrance signs. The next step is to liaise with Devon Highways. The results of the business survey held in June will soon appear on the council website.

Town Clock: The old town clock from the old Post Office (in 1901, presented to Hatherleigh Post Office by J P Gould), has received some TLC from Anthony Munn and its new home is in the Community Centre office.

Remembrance Sunday Parade: the road closure has now been approved by Devon Highways. Further details of the event will be posted by the RBL branch elsewhere in this Pump.

Christmas Celebrations: Updates next month on this but dates for your diary are Monday 6th December for Late Night Shopping Evening and Christmas Lights Switch On.

Hatherleigh Market: the Town Council have formally registered an interest with Kingswood Homes for a long term lease of the market, subject to agreeing to its leasing arrangements. Updates have been sought on the progress of the market area from KWH, they tell us plans are still on track for completion next summer, but a pedestrian access thru site from the carpark is still some way off. We would like to remind people that the Town car park is free to use Tuesday mornings 9-1pm. Dist.Cllr Kimber and Kemp reported on a WDBC grant to support market traders, and disruption to waste collections are due to staff shortages.

Other reports include the welcome news of the announcement of the new train service from Okehampton to Exeter starting in November, links and details will be on our website. The 150th Anniversary event of the Railway coming to Okehampton was attended by Cllrs. Also attended by Cllrs was the opening of the new Cricket Clubhouse.

The Rotary Club have been busy planting crocus bulbs around the roundabout; and DCC inform us that the roll out of LED streetlights will continue.

WINTER ISSUES:

In an Emergency Only please call Road Warden Stefan Farley on 07825 232331.

Sandbags: If residents need sandbags during bad weather they are available from the Community Centre during office hours 9-12 midday weekdays (01837 810329). Sandbags are not pre-filled and are for self-filling. Sand is available at the Community Centre.

Grit Bins: please check Grit Bins in your vicinity and report to us any bins that need topping up. Grit bins don't get automatically filled.

Space is short here. A full account of meetings are available in the minutes, these are available on the notice board at Millennium Square or the Town Council website at www.hatherleightowncouncil.org/

Correspondence to the Council should be addressed to the Clerk and for inclusion at a meeting be received 4 days prior to the meeting date. Correspondence received after that date will be considered at the following meeting.

Healthy Hedges make fine Dormouse Homes

Thank you to Rob Wolton for his amazing tour on Saturday 16 October for the Conservation Communities Project. Rob is Chair of the Devon Hedges Group and is keen to share his knowledge on the many benefits of Devon hedges to farmers and the general public, this walk focused on wildlife, particularly the adorable Dormouse.

We learnt that Dormice spend 75% of their lives either sleeping or hibernating. From spring to autumn Dormice feed on petals, pollen, insects, berries and nuts and they spend their entire time up in the branches of woodlands, hedgerows and scrub without ever touching the ground. In winter they hibernate at ground level. We were all thrilled to learn how to identify dormice nests as it is very hard to spot a dormouse itself.

The best place to find a dormouse nest is to look for a hedge that is thick and bushy with field roses, brambles, hazel or hawthorns. Once the autumn leaves start to fall, the nests become more visible. They may be as high as your eyeline, or as low as your knees, but they will always be in dense hedges or undergrowth. A dormouse nest is loosely woven, long dried grass and dried leaves and they always build their nest on the supportive stem. They can be as large as a grapefruit or as small as a tangerine and they look just like a bird's nest but have no visible entrance (a dormouse pushes its way through the wall of its nest).

Reporting evidence of dormice (see this month's Spotters Sheet – hazelnuts)

The hazel dormice used to be widespread across the UK, because of their declining numbers they are now protected. Here in Devon their population remains strong. Please remember a license is required to handle a dormouse, but if you spot an old a nest this autumn, please do report it to www.dbr.org.uk

Help assess the state of our hedgerows

Biodiversity audits will soon be re-written for our parishes, hedges are an important aspect of our landscape and a vital habitat for our local wildlife. To gain a true picture of the health of our hedges we need help to carry out hedgerow surveys. For more information visit the Conservation Communities Project page at www.devonwildlifetrust.org

Want to learn more about small mammals? Harvest Mouse Survey Training - 26 th November, Meeth Quarry, 11am – 3pm

Conservation Communities project is teaming up with the Devon Harvest Mouse Project. We are looking to train volunteers who are willing and able to carry out a harvest mouse survey.

English Muffins

As the days get shorter and we, maybe, get up a little later, breakfast can merge into lunch and it's time for "Brunch". There's nothing better than a nice home-made English Muffin with a couple of slices of local dry-cured bacon, a nice poached egg and a dollop of Hollandaise.

To make 12 muffins that freeze really well you will need:

250ml milk +250ml water warmed

1 tsp yeast

1 tsp sugar

60g of butter or cooking marg

750g of flour (half and half strong bread flour and plain flour)

1 tsp salt

2 tbsp of fine polenta for dusting (optional but gives them a nice crunch)

Chopped parsley for a garnish (optional)

If you have a bread maker then shove everything in on a dough setting but if not then combine the milk, water, yeast and sugar and let the yeast bubble in it for 10 mins and then put in the melted butter/marg, salt and flour and knead, rest and rise as for bread.

When the dough is risen then splat or roll it out to an inch thick and cut out muffins with a pastry cutter.

Drench the muffin shapes in Polenta (or flour) and leave to rise for about 30 mins. As these are not cooked in the oven I usually cover them with some muslin or a tea towel and let them rise on a thin plastic board or a piece of silicone on top of a hot water bottle..... works really well!

Heat a dry frying pan or griddle to a medium high heat and cook your muffins. They usually take about 8-10 mins per side but keep an eye on the first lot and how they are browning off on the bottom..... you may need adjust the heat or turn then over sooner and then turn them back again but if they have about 18 mins in total then they will be crispy on the outside and light and fluffy in the middle.

When you have lightly grilled, griddled or fried your bacon in the same pan then just toast the inside of the split crumpet a little in the same pan or grill, layer your bacon, your poached egg and your sauce, sprinkle with chopped parsley and put the top on and be ready for the squidge when your egg oooooooozes out!

Disclaimer:

I cannot be held responsible for the dribble down your chin or on your lap..... have a serviette or a bit of "posh" kitchen towel at the ready!

The Trick To Successfully Over-Wintering Geraniums

Geraniums hate the damp more than the cold and we certainly get enough damp during the winter months in Devon!

If your geraniums are in the flower bed put them in a pot and bring all your potted geraniums into the greenhouse, a warm porch or conservatory. The plants will still need light so don't put them in a shed.

Take all flowers, buds, damaged leaves and odd bits of stalk off the plant and make sure the surface of the soil is clean with no fallen leaves or petals on it.

Leave the plant for a week or so to get use to it's new environment but keep an eye out for any leaves going yellow or brown and take them off.

When you have some time to give them a bit of TLC. Thin out the branches of the plant by cutting them down to a leaf node with a sharp knife and take off most or all of the big leaves. Don't cut the big branches down to stumps as rot may well get into the heart of the plant.

Throughout the winter check the plants once a month and take off any dead leaves. Removing dead bits, keeping the surface of the soil clean and don't cram plants into a small area together; these are the keys to their survival. Only water from below once a month or even less.... never water over the top with a watering can.

The plant will try to flower over winter but take the buds off as the plant will have enough to do keeping itself healthy throughout the winter without trying to flower too!

I have geraniums that are 5 years old and still going strong and with a bit of pruning at the beginning of each season they will go from strength to strength each year AND you can root the cuttings for more plants.

Saving Your Tomato Seeds

If you are getting a good crop of toms then why not save your own seed from the toms that are particularly to your liking.

If you like small sweet toms like Streamline then pick the biggest softest tom from the top of a truss on the most prolific plant. If you like big fat Coeur de Boeuf then pick the biggest ripest tom from the plant that is producing the most good sized fruit. You are looking for good genes so don't save seed as an after-thought from a small just ripe tom just because it's the only one left.

Cut your tom open and with the tip of a knife scrape out the seeds on to a piece of paper kitchen towel. (of course you can still eat the flesh!) Spread the seeds around with your finger tips so they are not all in a clump and leave lying flat until the paper and seeds are thoroughly dry. Fold up the paper and keep in a box in cool dry conditions and when you want to plant then just wet the paper and gently scrape the seeds onto your compost and lightly cover with soil

Dry Cleaning and Shoe Mending Service

Our first meeting on 11th October since February 2020 was very well attended and it was great to meet some new people as well as welcoming back members. This meeting was our AGM and started with Vice Chairman Brian Abell asking everyone to stand for a minutes silence in respect of our late Chairman Dennis Bater. Brian then described how Dennis was nicknamed "Mr History", his great ability to recall stories and names of people from Hatherleigh and surrounding villages and how he had served Hatherleigh in many guises as well as being a founder member and a chairman for twenty years of the History Society. There was special mention too of Dennis`s wife Carolyn who died this year and supported the History Society. They are very much missed by all.

After appointing Brian Abell as the Interim chairman and Monica Jones to remain as Secretary with Sarah Squire as Speakers Secretary and Martin Hartnett as Treasurer, there was a presentation to Brian. This was in the form of an Honorarium for his services to the History Society and his years of collecting and archiving records and photographs.

We then enjoyed a slide film show by Alan Beaman of the streets, buildings and businesses of Hatherleigh and how they had changed over the last 160 years, this was accompanied by music from the era`s.

Our next meeting will be on the 8th November in Old Schools at 7.30pm when we will be joined by one of our favourite speakers, Simon Dell, talking about `50 Years of the National Trust on Lundy Island`.

Exbourne, Sampford Courtenay & Jacobstowe WI

The latest meeting was held in Exbourne village hall on Thursday October 7. The speaker was Ann Stuart on the subject of Glass Fusing. She had members doing their own glass fusing, which proved very popular. She was thanked by Sally Kenealy. The business part of proceedings followed refreshments. The next walk is from Northlew on Friday October 29. A gift of £500 had been received from Kingswood (the developers of the Hatherleigh Market site), which members had visited. They were shown around the show houses and given a delicious tea. Arrangements were made about the Christmas celebrations. The winners of the competition for a glass ornament were a tie between Margaret Hawkins and Gillian Townsend Green and the Flower of the Month winner was Gillian Townsend Green. The next meeting is in Exbourne village hall on Thursday November 4 at 2.30pm, when the speaker will be Alison Erkman from Nat West talking about Scams.

St. Thomas of Canterbury Parish Church, Northlew.

We held our Harvest Festival a couple of weeks ago, but it was a bit different from normal. No plates of meat and spud, or dishes of trifle, but plates of all sorts passed around the church after the service. The produce was also auctioned in church and we all enjoyed a long-missed chance to get together and have a chat. We did miss Leigh and Lynne, but were very pleased to have Stuart and Margaret with us.

Very much missed were Les Friend and Jean Adams, both of whom were well known farmers who had passed away during the previous few weeks. Our sympathy to Bet and Den and their families, and memories of previous harvests with them.

REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY. The Service of Remembrance will be at 10.50 a.m. on 14th November, starting at the War Memorial and continuing in Church. Also the Act of Remembrance on Armistice Day(11th) will be at the Memorial at 10.50a.m.

Twenty-six young men from Northlew are named on the War Memorial. Four were killed in the Second World War, and twenty-two in the First World War. We owe our freedom to such as these and they must never be forgotten.

VICTORY HALL CENTENARY. The Centenary of the opening of the Victory Hall was celebrated with a brilliant afternoon which included a fine exhibition of photos and artefacts in the Hall, tea and cake, the Silver Band playing and a lot of history of the last hundred years on show in the Hall.

A large number of parishioners spent a most informative and enjoyable afternoon.

Many thanks to the Hall Committee.

St. Michael and All Angels, Meeth.

Well, the lovely warm sunny days we have enjoyed in recent weeks have finally deserted us, and instead we are experiencing more normal autumnal weather: damp and chilly. All are gifts from God in their seasons.

OUR PATRONAL SERVICE and lunch held at the end of September was a very special happy occasion, and we were pleased to welcome some 20 people from the village to join us for a hot lunch in the village hall. Many thanks to those who joined us and to all who provided the food, much appreciated .

HARVEST FESTIVAL SUPPER AND AUCTION The church was beautifully decorated for our Harvest celebrations on Friday 15th October. The Rev. Leigh officiated and gave a thought-provoking sermon; the service was well attended by many; supper and auction were held in the village hall following the service, when more people joined us. Derek Horn very kindly acted as auctioneer ably assisted by the Rev. Leigh; altogether a very enjoyable evening. Grateful thanks to all who helped in any way towards making this evening so successful.

A TEAM OF BELL-RINGERS FROM LAUNCESTON visited our church on Saturday 16th October and rang for about an hour in total. It was really special to hear our lovely bells being rung once again.

WOULD ANYONE INTERESTED IN LEARNING TO RING PLEASE PHONE BERYL ON 810553 WE HOPEFULLY HAVE SOMEONE WHO WOULD BE WILLING TO COME ALONG TO TEACH AND ENCOURAGE ANYONE WHO IS KEEN TO LEARN THE ART OF BELLRINGING It would be lovely to hear the bells being rung on a regular basis.

DATES FOR YOUR DIARY

Monday 6th December Samuel Jerman Service. 7 p.m. followed by hot cider punch and nibbles. All are welcome.

Tuesday 21st December. 7 p.m. Carol Service followed by hot mulled wine and mince pies. All are welcome.
