Hello all,

Firstly, I guess I should introduce myself so as to prevent anyone assuming it's Leigh writing (Though I'd be curious to know what clues in our writing style might have made you think so, or otherwise?!) My name's Jonathan. I'm the new curate working with Leigh for the five northerly parishes of the Northmoor team. I'm excited to get to know everyone in good time, so please do come and say hello if you see me.

We haven't finished unpacking our house yet, but we're already falling in love with this beautiful area and the brilliant people we're surrounded by. I hope we never take it/you for granted. Moving continues to highlight bits we have been taking for granted in life. Everything from knowing where the right kitchen utensil is or a tool in the shed, to names of the postman or faces around town. Basic things are taking little bits of energy. Everything is new. Simple days are surprisingly tiring. Who knew so many little things made life before so much easier!?

It's got me thinking about what we take for granted. The very air we breath, the beauty of Devon, being able to walk places. How much of life do we take for granted? Always focusing on the next and best things, missing the mountain of miniscule blessings in the background. There's been a lot of gardening to do since moving and I'm ever surprised at how long the groundwork is taking before doing anything 'exciting'. But the dirt is where the beauty is rooted. It has to come first.

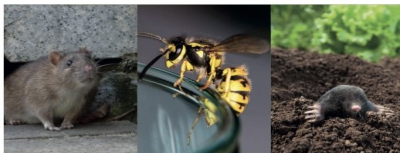

Ofcourse, it's not just the small things. Anyone who has lost a loved one, a home, or a job, likely knows the depth of loss when the very rug of life feels to have been taken from under our feet.

I wonder - what, or who, might you be taking for granted in this season of life that you might be able to spend some time being thankful for? Or saying thank you to. Or, are there changes in your life that might be having a bigger background effect than you give yourself credit for as you're not your 'normal' self?

Not all of us are moving house - but life is always moving. As we face the routines of school, and the days eventually begin to darken, may we face the routines ahead with thankfulness for all they bring that we do love, but sometimes take for granted.

God bless

Jonathan

The Rotary Club of Hatherleigh are a small friendly group of people who meet at the George Inn on a Monday evenings at 7.30pm. We like to raise money for worthy causes and offer assistance where we can in our local Community.

The Night Sky September 2024

In September we can, from Devon, indeed from much of Europe observe a partial Lunar Eclipse.

The partial lunar eclipse will take place on the 18th as it is then that the moon will be full. The eclipse will take place in the very very early morning of the 18th. It will begin at 1:41 and end at 5:47 with maximum eclipse at 3:44. The moon will still go fairly deep into earth's shadow and may have that lovely red colour. A portion of it could go quite dark. However the earth's umbra. The deepest part of the shadow will graze the top right of the moon. It's well worth observing especially with a pair of binoculars.

News from around the Parishes

Exbourne, Sampford Courtenay & Jacobstowe WI

Exbourne WI have won gold at the Okehampton Show with their co-operative entry. The theme being The Olympics, members depicted Paris 2024.

Congratulations to members who helped, and a special mention to Annie's beautiful red, white and blue flower arrangement, Gillian's perfect

Blackcurrant Jam, Shirley's very tasty Quiche Lorraine, and Liz's needle felted Olympic mascot. There was no meeting at the hall this month, but The President, Cherry arranged a very enjoyable but wet afternoon outing to Old Glebe, Eggesford, part of the National Garden Scheme. A 7-acre garden surrounding a Georgian rectory. Members and partners enjoyed wondering along walled borders, herbaceous beds, and numerous ponds. Lovely cakes and a cup of tea made up for the rain! Our September meeting will be at Sampford Courtenay Village Hall, with a cooking demonstration, from Caryl, entitled from zero to hero. If you are interested in joining our WI, or one near you, just go to the Devon WI website, where you will find the contact details.

PUBLIC MEETING – Exbourne Village Hall – Friday, 11th October, 2024

The Exbourne Neighbourhood Plan Group together with the Parish Council is holding a public meeting to give residents and those who work in Exbourne an opportunity to give comments on the Draft Neighbourhood Plan.

Two sessions will take place. Session One 2 -4 pm. Refreshments provided. Session Two will take place from 7 – 9pm. Refreshments provided. Each session will consist of a short presentation on the Draft Neighbourhood Plan.

The Group is grateful to all those who have in the past attended or responded to previous consultations and now we need to know whether the community still wishes to have a neighbourhood plan and if so that we are on the right track.

This concerns the future of Exbourne so please make every effort to attend.

Please come along on Saturday 21st September to help with our annual big 'rake up'. We have let the grass and wild flowers remain uncut in the main churchyard over the summer months to allow the wild flowers, insects and mammals to flourish. It will soon all be mown but we will need your help to rake it all up. Please keep your eye out for posters with timings and information. As always, we are grateful for help to keep the churchyard looking its best, please let me know if you are able to help in any way. We have put some paper bags in the church porch to collect wild flower and grass seed. If you have managed to harvest any seeds they can be placed in there for planting.

HATHERLEIGH COMMUNITY LAND TRUST

Community led housing is a growing movement of people taking action and managing housing projects that build the decent and affordable homes that the country so desperately needs. Anyone can start, volunteer and deliver a community led housing project. You don't need to work in housing, you don't need a degree in architecture, you don't need to be a builder. If you think a change is needed, you can lead that change.

The local community group or organisation owns, manages or stewards the homes and in a manner of their choosing, and this may be done through a mutually supported arrangement with a Registered Provider that owns the freehold or leasehold for the property.

The benefits to the local area and/or specified community are clearly defined and legally protected in perpetuity. A community land trust (CLT) is a not-for-profit organisation that is made up of community members. CLTs are a way for communities to build, bring back into life or protect buildings and services that are important to them.

It is intended to set up Hatherleigh Community Land Trust as a Community Benefit Society for the purpose of developing community led affordable housing and bespoke housing that would be available for shared ownership under the Home Ownership for People with Long Term Disabilities Scheme.

The Hatherleigh CLT will be seeking to recruit Members who have a local connection to Hatherleigh. For further information about any of the above, please contact emma@made-well.co.uk. Please join us on 8th September at Hatherleigh Community Centre at 7pm.

Well at last, we've been blessed with some beautiful sunny weather to enjoy, which lifts our spirits and puts a smile on our faces. It's been wonderful!! Thank you Lord.

OUR CHURCH FETE:- Held at the Village Hall in July, and opened by a very special lady, our very dear friend and long time resident of Meeth Mrs Phyllis Cobbledick it was a very happy occasion and a great success. A short shower threatened just as Phyllis was about to give her opening speech – but soon passed and we enjoyed a lovely dry sunny afternoon.

A HUGE THANK YOU to all who helped in any way in making this Fete so special – from Stewards to Sign makers – from Stall holders to Tea ladies – from Walking raffles to Cake makers. It was such a very happy occasion - but also To All who came along and supported us -without you, this would not have happened – so Thank you all so much.

CHURCH BOOKSTALL.

Thank-you to those who have very kindly left bags full of books in the church recently, we very much appreciate your generosity but at this moment in time are unable to accommodate any further donations for the time being. Our grateful thanks to all who have donated so far.

Please feel free to pause at your leisure – the church is open daily between 10am and 4pm.

please contact Martin Hartnett 01837 810192 or Monica Jones 01837 811293.

The next meeting of the History Society is on Monday 9th September at 7.30pm in Old Schools when we will have Beck's Pearson from Lymptone, an ex-Naval Officer, talk about recording the experiences or memories of women in Devon who served during WW2 in the Woman's Land Army. Many of these women came from Scotland, London, Liverpool, all over the country, they quite possibly only knew life in the towns but some of them ended up loving the countryside, met and married and settled in Devon. There were also many local Devonshire women who chose to join the Land Army and worked on nearby farms or were already from farming backgrounds and their experience was invaluable.

Did you have someone in your family who was one of these ladies, did they tell you of their experiences or leave photographs? We are hoping that people with memories or a story to pass on to Beck's will be able to join us at the meeting. Visitors and guests welcome £3.

Exbourne Village Hall

Our next social event is a Bingo Night on Saturday 7th September, 7.30pm for 8pm start. Bring your own refreshments.

After 10 years, the Community 'micro' Library finished in August. At the final session Rose Williams and Margaret Weeks, who have run it from the beginning, were thanked by the Village Hall Committee and the Library users for all the time they had both put into it and were presented with flowers

Hatherleigh Bellringers

Own a Piece of Hatherleigh History

A couple of weeks ago the bellringers posted on Facebook with details of wooden items we are making from the 1883 oak bell frame. We have nightlight holders and candlesticks to offer at the moment and it's no exaggeration to say we have been inundated with orders. But if you aren't on Facebook you won't have seen them, so we are posting information here too.

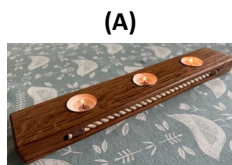

There is a finite amount of wood in the old frame, and when it's gone, it's gone. As it becomes clearer what wood will remain after the first round of orders, we will repurpose it for different items which may include clocks, door wedges, door stops and coasters.

Pieces will be made to order and permanently marked with our unique authentication brand. You will also receive an information sheet about the wood with an edition number for your piece. We aim to make everything in time for Christmas but may be able to meet a specific date with prior agreement.

If you would like an info sheet with more images, please email Sadie Harrison who will also help with enquiries and orders. sadie@harrisonsonthenet.co.uk

We are holding our final outdoor event of the summer on Saturday 14th September starting at 6.30. Do come along and enjoy some music with a maybe some cider and pasties thrown in! We will be showcasing some music that we'll be playing at a very special concert in Reading on the 28th September. If there are any diehard fans who wish to accompany us, we will be going up by bus and performing in the afternoon and then be enjoying music in the evening from the world famous Flowers band before returning on the 29th.

A date for your diaries for October will be an Autumn concert on 19th October in the Community Centre. We are delighted that some new youngsters have joined our training band. We always welcome new players young and old. Come along and try it!

Best wishes

Check Out Your Back Catalogue

Now that we are in the pleasant lull between Summer and having to winterize the garden it is the time to relax, enjoy the sun, enjoy the fruits of your labours and sit out under the parasol in your garden chair with a glass of wine or a cup of tea and think about your "back catalogue". I don't mean you should have your ear-pods in listening to old albums of Donny Osmond or The Bay City Rollers! I mean your "back catalogue" of garden plants.

This is the perfect time to think about what really worked in the garden this year, what plants you really should have had more of, which plants only just clung on to life over the last winter and which new plants you love but you are not sure if they will make it through another soggy winter. Buying plants can be expensive so use what you've got and think about propagating now to make next year's display even better. Some plants can be multiplied by division, some plants can be reproduced from cuttings, some plants can be propagated by simply saving the seeds for next year and others seeds need a little helping hand to ensure they will germinate next year. Here are a few examples:

The Japanese Anemone, Rudbeckia, Liatris, Astrantia, Hosta and a whole host of other plants can simply be dug up and divided at the end of the summer; either to be re-planted in different areas or in pots.

Hydrangeas, Tibouchina, Geranium and various shrubby plants can be propagated either from soft or hard wood cuttings. For Hydrangeas and Tibouchina simply pinch out a leaf pairing with no flower, squish into some compost in small modules and leave sitting in a shallow tray of water until you start to see roots appear. Some other shrubby plants are a little more reluctant to take such as roses but if you plant enough cuttings you will definitely get some. Small cuttings from Geraniums you are going to try and over-winter can be arranged in a pot of moist compost until they root and then they can be potted individually. The secret to over-wintering Geraniums (older plants or cuttings) is to ensure they are barely watered from below and leaf and leaf debris is kept to a minimum so they don't rot or develop leaf mould; the same applies to Argyranthemum and Osteospermum.

Some plants will simply give up their seeds when they are ready such as Love-Lies-Bleeding, French Marigolds, Poppy, Salvias, Snapdragons, Dwarf Pink and Trailing Lobelia. All you need to do is wait until the seeds are ready on the plant (green seeds will not germinate) and then collect, bag and keep in dry conditions ready for next year.

Other plants will give their seed but they need a helping hand to be ready to germinate. Cosmos, Echinacea, Lupin, Astrantia and some others need to be cold treated by sticking them in a tub in the fridge for a few weeks before planting to increase the chances of germination. Give these various basic methods of propagation a go as you've got nothing to lose! Please feel free to contact me via my Facebook page or by e-mail tuckersplot@gmail.com if you want advice about specific plants.

Northlew St Thomas of Canterbury Church and Friends of St Thomas'

Our recent Patronal Festival was very well attended - and very fortunate in not having a single drop of rain! The afternoon started in Church with the Festival Service conducted by the Rev. Leigh Winsbury and the Rev.

Jonathan Cook. During the service The Murder of Archbishop Becket was acted by the school children. The script for this play was written by the late Archdeacon Newhouse - I wonder whether he kept a beady eye on this years cast!

Following the service the Fete was opened by Sarah, Jonathan's wife. During the afternoon various stalls were patronised; games and competitions were enjoyed as was tea, hot dogs etc. Thanks were expressed to Shaun and Morwenna for the use of their immaculate field.

The ancient Church in Northlew, inspired by Thomas Becket's life and sacrifice, has stood here for hundreds of years and hopefully will continue to do so for many more.

HATHERLEIGH GARDENING CLUB

Well, that's quite enough gadding about for one year so we find ourselves, this September, back in Old Schools for the usual monthly meeting. Sally Newbrook, Formal Ornamental Team Leader at RHS Rosemoor, will be giving a presentation on 'Growing Roses in the South West', followed by a question and answer session.

This talk will be on Wednesday, September 18th at 7.30pm in Old Schools and is open to all. We do hope you will join us for what should be a very interesting and informative talk, especially if you love roses and who doesn't....!

Please use contact details below if you have any questions about that talk or the club in general.

Spooky Musical Treats Await Your Participation

Fresh from the sell out success of their first concert, Stand Sure Orchestra & Choirs are starting their new term with a Halloween Concert in October...and they would love for you to join them as a singer or musician. All the music is contemporary and the meetings take place at Hatherleigh Community Centre.

The orchestra welcomes anyone who can read music/TAB and is able to play to competent standard. No previous experience of playing in an ensemble is necessary so whether you're a seasoned player or new to the game a warm welcome awaits you. Whatever instrument you play, there's a place for you! The orchestra will meet on Wednesday evenings from 7:30pm - 9:30pm starting 4th September.

Whether you like to belt out a song in the shower, sing-a-long whilst driving, have sung in vocal groups before, or whether you just like the idea of singing (with others), this contemporary vocal ensemble would love to meet you. Harmonies are completely optional and there's even the opportunity to try out for solo or small group work if you want to. Stand Sure Choir offers a safe space to learn and develop for anyone over the age of 16, with no upper age limit. Just have the desire to have fun! The choir will meet on Thursday evenings from 7:30pm - 9:30pm starting 5th September.

In a change to the previous press release, the Youth Choir will now run as one big unit and will be open to anyone between the ages of eight and 16. Stand Sure Youth Choir will operate on a Thursday from 6pm - 7:30pm, and a Saturday from 3pm - 4:30pm (attendance at both not necessary). The rehearsals are great fun and members have said it's the highlight of their week. "Watching the youth develop in confidence has been wonderful", said one of the adult members. The first meetings are 5th and 7th September.

A termly fee applies (this term running from September to December). The director has enhanced DBS. To register your intention of joining, or to find out more information please do email info@standsureorchestra.co.uk, or visit their website www.standsureorchestra.co.uk. They can't wait to meet you. Don't stop believing!
